Italy

I've cheated a little for this one, as I have already been here but enjoyed it so much that I'd love to go back. In February 2019, the geography department organised a trip to Italy with 40 students. This was such an amazing experience. Whilst there, we visited the Amalfi coast, climbed Mount Vesuvius, had a tour of Pompeii, took a boat ride to the Isle of Capri and made our very own gelato! It was definitely up in the top 10 places I've visited. To top it off, we ate a lot of Italian pizza and pasta!

Fiji

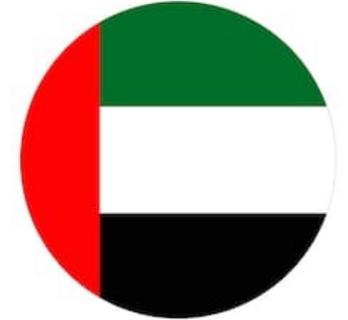

Destination 1

I would love to visit Fiji because of the traditional culture of the Fijian people. The indigenous people live a life full of laughter and music which I would love to experience. Whilst there I'd love to try their famous cuisine— Indigenous Fijian feasts are cooked in a 'lovo', an underground earth oven heated by hot stones. This slow-cook technique produces beautifully tender food with great flavour and a light smokiness. Another attraction is the picturesque white sand beaches perfect for relaxing. This truly would be a holiday of a lifetime.

Dubai

Destination 2

One place that is on my bucket list is Dubai! Whilst travelling to Hong Kong a few years ago, I stopped in Dubai for a short while but never left the airport! Ever since, I have wanted to visit here for a long weekend although it is a little far to travel for just a weekend! I find Dubai as a city truly fascinating. It is hard to imagine that this city only started to develop in 1966, and in such a short space of time it has grown to the large urban sprawl it is today. I would love the opportunity to visit the Palm Islands (man-made islands!) and the Burj Khalifa (the tallest building in the world, standing at 829.8m).
